ATTENTION!

The Interagency Committee on Employees with Disabilities (ICED) in partnership with the Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs (IDVA) invites you to attend a special event for Veterans, friends and family members.

IDVA will be discussing the NEW GI BILL and other educational benefits available for Veterans and their dependents.

IDVA will present valuable information regarding the "Troops to Teachers" program and a Veterans' Service Officer will be on site to answer questions regarding additional benefits and eligibility for benefits available to Veterans and their dependents.

Event Date: March 25, 2009, Noon until 3p.m.

Participation in this event is available in three options;

IN PERSON: 130 West Mason, Springfield (basement of building)

(In Chicago) 100 W. Randolph Room 9-040 James R. Thompson Center

VIA PHONE BRIDGE: 1-877-336-1828 use access code 3027383

WEBCAST: <http://www.state.il.us/iced>, select the "view seminar" button

(Accommodations will be provided upon request)

If you are a Veteran, or have a Veteran in your family or you know a Veteran, you should attend this program to find out about the important rights and benefits available to Veterans.

The IDVA presenters for this event are:

Kelly Cravens, Veterans' Service Officer

Dan Wellman, Veterans' Education Specialist III

Emily Siefken, Program Manager Troops to Teachers

Jimmie L. Miller, EEO Officer Veterans' Re-Employment Rights

Sergio Estrada, IDVA Assistant Director IL Warriors Assistant Program

If you have any questions concerning the many benefits available to veterans, call (217) 782-6641/ (800) 437-9824 and ask to speak to a Veterans' Service Officer.
